The JOURNAL of ACCOUNTANCY

Index to Volume 95 • January, 1953 — June, 1953

Accountancy and accountants
- Accountant's responsibility for events occurring after the statement date: the Shonts case. Rappaport, Louis H. March, p. 332.
- As others see us. (Editorial) May, p. 550.
- Constitutionality of New York CPA law upheld. (Editorial) Feb., p. 164.
- Is bigness bad? (Editorial) June, p. 680.
- Is public accounting attracting enough good men? (Editorial) April, p. 421.
- Obligations of the independent public accountant to his profession. Tilly, Virgil. June, p. 714.
- South American prosperity has created acute need for accountants. Brown, John. (T&P) April, p. 477.
- States vary widely in rules on CPA reciprocity and temporary practice provisions. American institute of accountants. (T&P) April, p. 474.
- Troubles that arise when government control agencies try to prescribe accounting procedures. Taggart, Herbert F. March, p. 296.
- Uniform standards for professional qualification. (Editorial) Jan., p. 36.

Accountants' office
- Book bonus plan in CPA office achieves wider reading by staff men. Brooke, Winston. (T&P) April, p. 475.
- English reception of CPA handbook. (Editorial) April, p. 423.
- How to plan audit engagement, supervise staff, organize work to cut down man hours. Gray, Charles H. May, p. 588.
- Management practices especially adapted to the growing medium-sized accounting firm. Hinderer, Harry F. Feb., p. 198.
- Three challenges to every CPA serving small local clients. Witschey, Robert E. March, p. 320.

Accounting
- Accounting principles and taxable income—Supplementary statement no. 4, Aug. 1, 1952. American accounting association. Committee on concepts and standards underlying corporate financial statements. (OD&R) Feb., p. 241.
- SEC annual report discusses accounting principles and procedures. (OD&R) May, p. 602.
- Tax accounting and financial accounting. (Editorial) Feb., p. 163.

Accounting releases
- SEC accounting series release no. 73: the Thomascolor case. (OD&R) Jan., p. 83.

Accounting research bulletins
- Accounting for stock options. (Editorial) April, p. 423.
- Accounting for stock options: why Accounting research bulletin no. 37 was revised. American institute of accountants. Research department. April, p. 436.
- Emergency facilities: accounting for depreciation and taxes under certificates of necessity—complete text of Accounting research bulletin no. 42. American institute of accountants. Committee on accounting procedure. Jan., p. 48.
- Research bulletin (no. 37) on stock options revised; compensation measured as of date granted. American institute of accountants. Committee on accounting procedure. March, p. 310.
- Stock dividends and split-ups: accounting treatment by stockholders and corporation—complete text of Accounting research bulletin no. 11 (revised). American institute of accountants. Committee on accounting procedure. Jan., p. 44.

Accounts receivable
- See Receivables

Key: CP&AP—Current Accounting & Auditing Problems; Corr.—Correspondence; OD&R—Official Decisions & Releases; SD—Students Department; T&P—Technical & Professional Notes.

The JOURNAL of ACCOUNTANCY

Index to Volume 95 • January, 1953 — June, 1953

Accountancy and accountants
- Accountant's responsibility for events occurring after the statement date: the Shonts case. Rappaport, Louis H. March, p. 332.
- As others see us. (Editorial) May, p. 550.
- Constitutionality of New York CPA law upheld. (Editorial) Feb., p. 164.
- Is bigness bad? (Editorial) June, p. 680.
- Is public accounting attracting enough good men? (Editorial) April, p. 421.
- Obligations of the independent public accountant to his profession. Tilly, Virgil. June, p. 714.
- South American prosperity has created acute need for accountants. Brown, John. (T&P) April, p. 477.
- States vary widely in rules on CPA reciprocity and temporary practice provisions. American institute of accountants. (T&P) April, p. 474.
- Troubles that arise when government control agencies try to prescribe accounting procedures. Taggart, Herbert F. March, p. 296.
- Uniform standards for professional qualification. (Editorial) Jan., p. 36.

Accountants' office
- Book bonus plan in CPA office achieves wider reading by staff men. Brooke, Winston. (T&P) April, p. 475.
- English reception of CPA handbook. (Editorial) April, p. 423.
- How to plan audit engagement, supervise staff, organize work to cut down man hours. Gray, Charles H. May, p. 588.
- Management practices especially adapted to the growing medium-sized accounting firm. Hinderer, Harry F. Feb., p. 198.
- Three challenges to every CPA serving small local clients. Witschey, Robert E. March, p. 320.

Accounting
- Accounting principles and taxable income—Supplementary statement no. 4, Aug. 1, 1952. American accounting association. Committee on concepts and standards underlying corporate financial statements. (OD&R) Feb., p. 241.
- SEC annual report discusses accounting principles and procedures. (OD&R) May, p. 602.
- Tax accounting and financial accounting. (Editorial) Feb., p. 163.

Accounting releases
- SEC accounting series release no. 73: the Thomascolor case. (OD&R) Jan., p. 83.

Accounting research bulletins
- Accounting for stock options. (Editorial) April, p. 423.
- Accounting for stock options: why Accounting research bulletin no. 37 was revised. American institute of accountants. Research department. April, p. 436.
- Emergency facilities: accounting for depreciation and taxes under certificates of necessity—complete text of Accounting research bulletin no. 42. American institute of accountants. Committee on accounting procedure. Jan., p. 48.
- Research bulletin (no. 37) on stock options revised; compensation measured as of date granted. American institute of accountants. Committee on accounting procedure. March, p. 310.
- Stock dividends and split-ups: accounting treatment by stockholders and corporation—complete text of Accounting research bulletin no. 11 (revised). American institute of accountants. Committee on accounting procedure. Jan., p. 44.

Accounts receivable
- See Receivables

Key: CP&AP—Current Accounting & Auditing Problems; Corr.—Correspondence; OD&R—Official Decisions & Releases; SD—Students Department; T&P—Technical & Professional Notes.

Almond, John E.
Arbitrary calendar permits sensible scheduling of accounting duties. (Corr.) June, p. 668.
American accounting association
Accounting principles and taxable income—Supplementary statement no. 4, August 1, 1952. (OD&R) Feb., p. 241.
American bar association
Emphasis on ethics. (Editorial) March, p. 292.
American institute of accountants
Accountants held not guilty of gross negligence by AIA committee on ethics in SEC II(e) proceeding. (OD&R) June, p. 723.
Accounting for stock options: why Accounting research bulletin no. 37 was revised. April, p. 436.
Emergency facilities: accounting for depreciation and taxes under certificates of necessity—complete text of Accounting research bulletin no. 42. Jan., p. 48.
Research bulletin (no. 37) on stock options revised; compensation measured as of date granted. March, p. 310.
Rules of professional conduct of the American institute of accountants; complete official text as revised Dec. 19, 1950. April, p. 465.
States vary widely in rules on CPA reciprocity and temporary practice provisions. (T&P) April, p. 474.
Stock dividends and split-ups: accounting treatment by stockholders and corporation—complete text of Accounting research bulletin no. 11 (revised). Jan., p. 44.
American society of women accountants
How to install and operate a cycle billing system in a retail business. Jan., p. 38.
Andrews, T. Coleman
CPA appointed commissioner. (Editorial) Feb., p. 165.
Annuities
Accounting for single-premium insurance policy. (CA&AP) May, p. 601.
Arrowsmith and Bauer, executors, et al v. comm.
U.S. Supreme court denies ordinary-loss deduction to post-liquidation transferee. Gutkin, Sydney A., and Beck, David. March, p. 314.
Assets
Fully-depreciated fixed assets in active use. (CA&AP) Jan., p. 77.
Auditing
Fifty years of auditing. (Editorial) April, p. 423.
Is the term "audit" too loosely used? (Editorial) May, p. 551.
Plea for international auditing standards. (Editorial) May, p. 552.
SEC annual report discusses accounting principles and procedures. (OD&R) May, p. 602.
Bachrach, Michael D.
Accountant's proper course of action when he recognizes a client's life insurance needs. May, p. 594.
Backman, Jules
Professional fees: factors affecting fee setting in the several professions. May, p. 554.
Banks and bankers
CPAs and bankers help each other to help their clients. Jennings, Alvin R. June, p. 706.
Clean line of responsibility is fundamental for good internal control systems for small banks. Fischer, Robert W. April, p. 454.
Poll of Texas banks gives information about independent accountants' reports. (CA&AP) April, p. 467.
Beck, David, joint author
See Gutkin, Sydney A., and Beck, David.
Beckett, John A.
Pros and cons of direct costing as contrasted with full costing. (T&P) April, p. 482.
Bell, S. Alexander
SEC criticized for trying to change accounting principles by fiat. (Corr.) March, p. 288.
Benintende, Edward H.
Will government accept income averaging for tax purposes? It would lose money. (Corr.), Feb., p. 155.
Bergstrom, Kenneth H.
Accountant's natural advantages in developing work simplification programs. April, p. 449.
Berkshire, Stewart
Bureau upheld by courts in 80 per cent of tax cases tried; 64 per cent of non-docketed cases closed by agreement. (T&P) June, p. 744.
Big business
Is bigness bad? (Editorial) June, p. 680.
Blough, Carman G., editor
See Current accounting and auditing problems
Bonds
Attractive tax features of discount bonds should make them useful as tax-planning instruments. Morris, Augustus. March, p. 305.
Bordner, Howard W.
Defense department policy in use of accelerated amortization as a cost in contracts. Feb., p. 179.
Bradley, Fontaine C.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in commercial law, November, 1952; answers prepared by Fontaine C. Bradley. (SD) May 53, p. 632.
Brooke, Winston
Book bonus plan in CPA office achieves wider reading by staff men. (T&P) April, p. 475.
Brown, John
South American prosperity has created acute need for accountants. (T&P) April, p. 477.
Brown, John E.
EPT liability resulting from installment sales under current law, contrasted with 1942 law. (T&P) Jan., p. 65.
Browse, Robert H.
Simplified method for tank content conversion to help accountants verify liquid inventory. Jan., p. 60.
Budgets
Eleven requirements for a good budgeting system, and five reasons why more companies don't use them. Draper, V.R. (T&P) March, p. 351.
Industrial budget for small companies is actually an operations plan shown in dollars. National industrial conference board. (T&P) Feb., p. 227.
Bureau announces standards for acceptance of reproduced tax returns. (OD&R) March, p. 375.
"CPA handbook"
English reception of CPA handbook. (Editorial) April, p. 423.
Certificate or opinion
Accountant's opinion—or lack of it—should be made clear in interim reports. Ruggles, Robert W. Jan., p. 51.
Caution is advisable in signing opinion on special forms. (CA&AP) Jan., p. 74.
Chiappe, John
Accountants through the ages: a note on the profession in colonial times. (Corr.) Jan., p. 26.
Cilley, John K.
Manufacturer objects to suggested closing date for cement manufacturers. (Corr.) June, p. 668.
Close corporations
Some tax factors influencing the operation of the closely-held corporation. Phillips, Jay A. Feb., p. 166.
Closing
How controller of a newspaper can solve the month-end and year-end work load problem. Killian, G. Elliott. (T&P) Feb., p. 230.
Clowes, Francis J.
Taxpayer supplements Journal note on his case, now under appeal. (Corr.) April, p. 413.
Confirmations
Confirmation procedures for small loan company offered. (CA&AP) June, p. 718.
Contractors
Balance-sheet presentation of "progress billings" and "contracts in progress." (CA&AP) March, p. 347.
Coöperatives
How Japanese accounting systems for cooperatives have been revised under the Allied occupation. Essene, John C. March, p. 336.
Corporations
Classifying borrowings under "revolving-credit" agreements on the balance-sheet. (CA&AP) June, p. 716.
Correspondence
Accountants can help management make reports more useful to stockholders. Weber, Russell E. Jan., p. 28.
Accountants through the ages: a note on the profession in colonial times. Chiappe, John. Jan., p. 26.
Arbitrary calendar permits sensible scheduling of accounting duties. Almond, John E. June, p. 668.
Author defends proposals for averaging income. Cowing, John S. Feb., p. 155.
Averaged income-taxation unrealistic: reduces revenues, hurts steady earners. Wald, Nathan. Feb., p. 155.
Averaging income for tax purposes: how they do it in Australia. Fitzgerald, A. A. June, p. 670.
Averaging income won't lessen revenue; it's just fairer to fluctuating incomes. Seidman, J. S. May, p. 543.
Better service to clients good reason for change to natural business year. Kuhn, Harold A. April, p. 414.
Charge stock dividends at par, not market: a dissent from ARB no. 11. Hunter, Robert V. May, p. 543.
Colonel Montgomery urges crusade for a sensible use of cents. Montgomery, Robert H. June, p. 667.
"Distributable earnings" suggested as possible replacement for "earned surplus." Nelson, Robert H. April, p. 414.
"Estimated incollectibles" account is advance write-down of losses, not a fund. Piaker, Philip M. March, p. 285.
Good idea, says author. Lasser, S. Jay. April, p. 418.
Grady's statement doesn't go far enough. Seidman, J. S. Jan., p. 25.
Hints on starting a practice: one CPA's success story. Stuart, Rupert A. Feb., p. 156.
Make management aware of pitfalls attending cycle billing installation. Nizel, Manuel. May, p. 543.

Manufacturer objects to suggested closing date for cement manufacturers. Cilley, John K. June, p. 668.
Modern audits require modern audit bags. Gluick, Lewis. May, p. 546.
OPS official comments on accelerated amortization under OPS rules. Sweeney, Charles T. March, p. 286.
Rent, interest, taxes paid in current dollars, need no adjustment, says Grady. Grady, Paul. Jan., p. 25.
SEC criticized for trying to change accounting principles by fiat. Bell, S. Alexander. March, p. 288.
Shareholders want uniform terminology. Seidman, J. S. June, p. 667.
Should CPA candidates be expected to be experts in advanced theory? May, George O. June, p. 667.
Summer internship program suggested to relieve long-run manpower shortage. Ross, Raymund A. April, p. 414.
Taxpayer supplements Journal note on his case, now under appeal. Clowes, Francis J. April, p. 413.
Taxpayers should attest to data on return to protect accountants. Landman, J. H. April, p. 418.
Two objections to Hasbrouck's treatment of depreciation for public utilities. Stettler, Howard F. March, p. 285.
What do accountants mean by "generally accepted accounting principles"? Morey, Lloyd. April, p. 413.
Whose bad debts are accountants talking about? More on inaccurate terminology. Deutsch, Richard. Jan., p. 28.
Will government accept income averaging for tax purposes? It would lose money. Benintende, Edward H. Feb., p. 155.

Cost accounting
Pros and cons of direct costing as contrasted with full costing. Beckett, John A. (T&P) April, p. 482.

Costs
Accounts receivable and unbilled costs in personal service businesses. (CA&AP) Jan., p. 75.

Court of tax appeals
Single court of tax appeals? (Editorial) June, p. 678.

Cowing, John S.
Author defends proposals for averaging income. (Corr.) Feb., p. 155.

Current accounting and auditing problems; a department, edited by Carman G. Blough
Accounting for single-premium insurance policy. May, p. 601.
Accounts receivable and unbilled costs in personal service businesses. Jan., p. 75.
Advance payments and progress payments on contracts. Feb., p. 222.
Audit procedures applicable to school districts. April, p. 467.
Auditing receivables purchased "without notice." Feb., p. 223.
Balance-sheet presentation of "progress billings" and "contracts in progress." March, p. 347.
Caution is advisable in signing opinion on special forms. Jan., p. 74.
Classifying borrowings under "revolving-credit" agreements on the balance-sheet. June, p. 716.
Comments on confirmation, observation need not appear in unqualified report. March, p. 345.
Confirmation procedures for small loan company offered. June, p. 718.
Disclosure as to observing opening inventories is not required. May, p. 600.
Form of confirmation request letter for use by public accountants. Jan., p. 76.
Fully-depreciated fixed assets in active use. Jan., p. 77.
Is this an occasion for upward restatement? March, p. 346.
Poll of Texas banks gives information about independent accountants' reports. April, p. 467.
REA issues booklet on independent audits of its borrowers. March, p. 345.
Some of the dangers inherent in quarterly financial statements. Feb., p. 221.
Special conditions justify limited inventory observation. June, p. 716.
Treatment of fire loss and related gain from salvage. April, p. 469.

Cycle billing
How to install and operate a cycle billing system in a retail business. American society of women accountants. Jan., p. 38.

Depreciation
Depreciation and incentives. (Editorial) March, p. 292.
Emergency facilities: accounting for depreciation and taxes under certificates of necessity—complete text of Accounting research bulletin no. 42. American institute of accountants. Committee on accounting procedure. Jan., p. 48.
Fully-depreciated fixed assets in active use. (CA&AP) Jan., p. 77.

Depressions
Special deduction from income for tax purposes allowed by Swedish plan to alleviate depressions. Shelton, John P., and Ohlin, Goran. (T&P) June, p. 739.

Deutsch, Richard
Whose bad debts are accountants talking about? More on inaccurate terminology. (Corr.) Jan., p. 28.

Dividends
New York stock exchange issues new policy on accounting for stock dividends; statement issued Feb. 11, 1953. (OD&R) May, p. 604.
Stock dividends and split-ups: accounting treatment by stockholders and corporation—complete text of Accounting research bulletin no. 11 (revised). American institute of accountants. Committee on accounting procedure. Jan., p. 44.

Draper, V. R.
Eleven requirements for a good budgeting system, and five reasons why more companies don't use them. (T&P) March, p. 351.

Editorials
Accounting and auditing in defense procurement. June, p. 679.
Accounting for stock options. April, p. 423.
As others see us. May, p. 550.
CPA appointed commissioner. Feb., p. 165.
Changing tax climate. March, p. 291.
Col. Robert H. Montgomery. June, p. 677.
Confidential relationship between CPA and client. March, p. 294.
Constitutionality of New York CPA law upheld. Feb., p. 164.
Cost of issuing privately placed securities. April, p. 422.
Depreciation and incentives. March, p. 292.
Emphasis on ethics. March, p. 292.
English reception of CPA handbook. April, p. 423.
Ethical problems of tax practitioners. Jan., p. 34.
Fifty years of auditing. April, p. 423.
Is bigness bad? June, p. 680.
Is public accounting attracting enough good men? April, p. 421.
Is the term "audit" too loosely used? May, p. 551.
King committee reports—Committee on practice abolished. Feb., p. 161.
New York state's new rules of ethics. April, p. 424.
Nixon fund audit. Feb., p. 165.
Plea for international auditing standards. May, p. 552.
Records of oral discussion may be useful. March, p. 293.
Should we fear peace? May, p. 549.
Single court of tax appeals? June, p. 678.
Suspension of accountants by SEC a dangerous precedent. Jan., p. 33.
Tax accounting and financial accounting. Feb., p. 163.
Trends in financial reporting. Jan., p. 35.
Uniform standards for professional qualification. Jan., p. 36.

Electric light and power
REA issues booklet on independent audits of its borrowers. (CA&AP) March, p. 345.

Emergency facilities
Defense department policy in use of accelerated amortization as a cost in contracts. Bordner, Howard W. Feb., p. 179.
Department of defense directive—Treatment of depreciation on emergency facilities covered by certificates of necessity for contract pricing purposes—number 4105.34, 10 December 1952. Feb., p. 186.
Emergency facilities: accounting for depreciation and taxes under certificates of necessity—complete text of Accounting research bulletin no. 42. American institute of accountants. Committee on accounting procedure. Jan., p. 48.
Method of accounting for emergency facilities may be a major factor in income determination. Webster, Paul K. May, p. 580.

Essene, John C.
How Japanese accounting systems for coöperatives have been revised under the Allied occupation. March, p. 336.

Examinations
English chartered accountant candidates face battery of exams. (SD) May, p. 632.
Questions on current theory. (SD) April, p. 513.
References for accounting practice. (SD) Jan., p. 124.
References for November auditing examination. (SD) Feb., p. 249.
References for theory questions. (SD) March, p. 384.
Uniform certified public accountant examination, May 1953. (SD) June, p. 747.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in accounting practice, Part I, Nov., 1952 (SD) Jan., p. 114.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in accounting practice, Part II, Nov., 1952. (SD) Feb., p. 250.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in Auditing, Nov., 1952. (SD) March, p. 379.

Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in commercial law, Nov., 1952; answers prepared by Fontaine C. Bradley. (SD) May, p. 632.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in theory of accounts, Nov., 1952. April, p. 506.
Uniform standards for professional qualification. Jan., p. 36.

Expenses
Beware of the expense item that looks deceptively like a capital outlay . . . consistency in charging is essential if results of operations are to be fairly stated. Podd, George O. (T&P) May, p. 609.

Fees
Professional fees: factors affecting fee setting in the several professions. Backman, Jules. May, p. 554.

Fischer, Robert W.
Clean line of responsibility is fundamental for good internal control systems for small banks. April, p. 454.

Fitzgerald, A. A.
Averaging income for tax purposes: how they do it in Australia. (Corr.) June, p. 670.

Forms
Bureau of internal revenue prints, distributes yearly total of 494 million forms. (T&P) May, p. 607.

Fraud
Fraud can take place in well-designed system if working rules are not followed. Schisler, Herbert N. Feb., p. 176.

Funds
Nixon fund audit. (Editorial) Feb., p. 165.

Gebhardt, Charles H.
Tax supervisor runs tax course for credit men to help them appraise customers' tax situation. (T&P) June, p. 745.

Gluick, Lewis
Modern audits require modern audit bags. (Corr.) May, p. 546.

Goedert, J. P.
How income-tax sanctions have been applied in wage and price control violations. (T&P) March, p. 352.

Goodwill
Why purchased goodwill should be amortized on a systematic basis. Walker, George T. Feb., p. 210.

Government agencies and departments
Records of oral discussion may be useful. (Editorial) March, p. 293.
Suspension of accountants by SEC a dangerous precedent. (Editorial) Jan., p. 33.
Treasury abolishes committee on practice, establishes director of practice. (OD&R) March, p. 375.
Troubles that arise when government control agencies try to prescribe accounting procedures. Taggart, Herbert F. March, p. 296.

Government contracts
Accounting and auditing in defense procurement. (Editorial) June, p. 679.
Advance payments and progress payments on contracts. (CA&AP) Feb., p. 222.
Current defense contract termination rules compared to World war II procedures. Hall, Foster E. April, p. 440.
Defense department policy in use of accelerated amortization as a cost in contracts. Bordner, Howard W. Feb., p. 179.
Department of defense directive—Treatment of depreciation on emergency facilities covered by certificates of necessity for contract pricing purposes—number 4105.34, 10 December 1952. Feb., p. 186.

Grady, Paul
Rent, interest, taxes paid in current dollars, need no adjustment, says Grady. (Corr.) Jan., p. 25.

Gray, Charles H.
How to plan audit engagement, supervise staff, organize work to cut down man hours. May, p. 588.

Gutkin, Sydney A., and Beck, David
U.S. Supreme court denies ordinary-loss deduction to post-liquidation transferee. March, p. 314.

Hall, Foster E.
Current defense contract termination rules compared to World war II procedures. April, p. 440.

Hall, Sydney L.
What the CPA should know about deductible property or liability insurance (it's cheaper, it prevents losses) (T&P) Jan., p. 70.

Haskins and Sells
Accountants held not guilty of gross negligence by AIA committee on ethics in SEC II(e) proceeding. (OD&R) June, p. 723.

Hinderer, Harry F.
Management practices especially adapted to the growing medium-sized accounting firm. Feb., p. 198.

Hotels
Five rules for controlling and accounting for large volume of small items of equipment—Successful practice in hotel industry suggests ideas for other businesses. Nolin, Joseph H. (T&P) Feb., p. 229.

Hunter, Robert V.
Charge stock dividends at par, not market: a dissent from ARB no. 11. (Corr.) May, p. 543.

Illinois society of certified public accountants
Technical considerations for the public accountant in changing client to a natural business year. March, p. 325.

Incentives
Depreciation and incentives. (Editorial) March, p. 292.
How the "white collar" is losing its luster as a badge of superiority: a study of work incentives. Mills, C. Wright. (T&P) April, p. 488.

Income
Accounting principles and taxable income—Supplementary statement no. 4, August 1, 1952. American accounting association. Committee on concepts and standards underlying corporate financial statements. (OD&R) Feb., p. 241.
Method of accounting for emergency facilities may be a major factor in income determination. Webster, Paul K. May, p. 580.

Insurance
Accountant's proper course of action when he recognizes a client's life insurance needs. Bachrach, Michael D. May, p. 594.
Some curious effects of present tax law on the need for insurance coverage. Murtagh, James P. (T&P) March, p. 357.
Treatment of fire loss and related gain from salvage. (CA&AP) April, p. 469.
What the CPA should know about deductible property or liability insurance (it's cheaper, it prevents losses). Hall, Sydney L. (T&P) Jan., p. 70.

Internal audit and control
Applying auditing techniques to non-accounting activities useful to both auditor and management. Meriney, D. I. (T&P) Jan., p. 64.
Clean line of responsibility is fundamental for good internal control systems for small banks. Fischer, Robert W. April, p. 454.

Internal revenue, Bureau of
Bureau of internal revenue prints, distributes yearly total of 494 million forms. (T&P) May, p. 607.
CPA appointed commissioner. (Editorial) Feb., p. 165.
King committee reports—Committee on practice abolished. (Editorial) Feb., p. 161.
Treasury abolishes committee on practice, establishes director of practice. (OD&R) March, p. 375.

International harvester company
Fifty years of auditing. (Editorial) April, p. 423.

Inventories
Case against lifo as an inventory-pricing formula. Moonitz, Maurice. June, p. 682.
Case for lifo; it realistically states income and is applicable to any industry. McAnly, H. T. June, p. 691.
Comments on confirmation, observation need not appear in unqualified report. (CA&AP) March, p. 345.
Disclosure as to observing opening inventories is not required. (CA&AP) May, p. 600.
Simplified method for tank content conversion to help accountants verify liquid inventory. Browse, Robert H. Jan., p. 60.
Special conditions justify limited inventory observation. (CA&AP) June, p. 716.

Investments and securities
Cost of issuing privately placed securities. (Editorial) April, p. 422.

Jennings, Alvin R.
CPAs and bankers help each other to help their clients. June, p. 706.

Kaiser-Frazer corp. v. Otis
Records of oral discussion may be useful. (Editorial) March, p. 293.

Kane, Robert L., Jr., editor
See Students department

Kennett, Leo
Some perspectives on the valuation of commercial assets. (T&P) Jan., p. 68.

King committee
King committee reports—Committee on practice abolished. (Editorial) Feb., p. 161.

Kuhn, Harold A.
Better service to clients good reason for change to natural business year. (Corr.) April, p. 414.

Landman, J. H.
Taxpayers should attest to data on return to protect accountants. (Corr.) April, p. 418.

Lasser, J. K.
How to increase the charitable deduction by gifts other than cash. June, p. 701.

Lasser, J. K., editor
See Tax clinic

Lasser, S. Jay
Good idea, says author. (Corr.) April, p. 418.

Procedures to organize preparation of individual tax returns in the CPA's office. Feb., p. 190.
Lawyers
Emphasis on ethics. (Editorial) March, p. 292.
Ledgers
Suggested new form of general ledger simplifies location of errors. Tuchmann, Ernst. (T&P) March, p. 354.
Livestock
Capital-gains treatment of livestock under 1951 amendment to Internal revenue code. Romer, Roy R. (T&P) April, p. 478.
Loan companies
Confirmation procedures for small loan company offered. (CA&AP) June, p. 718.
McAnly, H. T.
Case for lifo: it realistically states income and is applicable to any industry. June, p. 691.
McCabe, James E.
How changes in management are affecting the task of getting work done in the office. (T&P) April, p. 481.
McDevitt, Edward J.
Paper—how to specify, plan, and buy economically for use in the accounting office. April, p. 460.
May, George O.
Should CPA candidates be expected to be experts in advanced theory? (Corr.) June, p. 667.
Mayer, Emilio
Taxation of the foreign businessman visiting the United States. Jan., p. 56.
Mechanical devices
Some factors affecting office machine selection. Norcross, H. H. (T&P) April, p. 475.
Meriney, D. I.
Applying auditing techniques to non-accounting activities useful to both auditor and management. (T&P) Jan., p. 64.
Mills, C. Wright
How the "white collar" is losing its luster as a badge of superiority: a study of work incentives. (T&P) April, p. 488.
Montgomery, Robert H.
Colonel Montgomery urges crusade for a sensible use of cents. (Corr.) June, p. 667.
Col. Robert H. Montgomery. (Editorial) June, p. 677.
Moonitz, Maurice
Case against lifo as an inventory-pricing formula. June, p. 682.
Morey, Lloyd
What do accountants mean by "generally accepted accounting principles"? (Corr.) April, p. 413.
Morris, Augustus
Attractive tax features of discount bonds should make them useful as tax-planning instrumeats. March, p. 305.
Murtagh, James P.
Some curious effects of present tax law on the need for insurance coverage. (T&P) March, p. 357.
National industrial conference board
Industrial budget for small companies is actually an operations plan shown in dollars. (T&P) Feb., p. 227.
Two ways to budget and control expenditures for research: project costs and expense classification. (T&P) May, p. 608.
Natural business year
Technical considerations for the public accountant in changing client to a natural business year. Illinois society of certified public accountants. March, p. 325.
Negligence
Accountants held not guilty of gross negligence by AIA committee on ethics in SEC II(e) proceeding. (OD&R) June, p. 723.
Nelson, Robert H.
"Distributable earnings" suggested as possible replacement for "earned surplus." (Corr.) April, p. 414.
New York stock exchange
New York stock exchange issues new policy on accounting for stock dividends; statement issued February 11, 1953. (OD&R) May, p. 604.
Newspaper publishers
How controller of a newspaper can solve the month-end and year-end work load problem. Killian, G. Elliott. (T&P) Feb., p. 230.
Nixon, Richard M.
Nixon fund audit. (Editorial) Feb., p. 165.
Nizel, Manuel
Make management aware of pitfalls attending cycle billing installation. (Corr.) May, p. 543.
Nolin, Joseph H.
Five rules for controlling and accounting for large volume of small items of equipment—Successful practice in hotel industry suggests ideas for other businesses. (T&P) Feb., p. 229.
Norcross, H. H.
Some factors affecting office machine selection. (T&P) April, p. 475.
Obituaries
Col. Robert H. Montgomery. (Editorial) June, p. 677.
Office management
How changes in management are affecting the task of getting work done in the office. McCabe, James E. (T&P) April, p. 481.
Official decisions and releases; a department
Accountants held not guilty of gross negligence by AIA committee on ethics in SEC II(e) proceeding. June, p. 723.
Accounting principles and taxable income—Supplementary statement no. 4, August 1, 1952. American accounting association. Committee on concepts and standards underlying corporate financial statements. Feb., p. 241.
Bureau announces standards for acceptance of reproduced tax returns. March, p. 375.
New York stock exchange issues new policy on accounting for stock dividends; statement issued February 11, 1953. May, p. 604.
SEC accounting series release no. 73: the Thomascolor case. Jan., p. 83.
SEC annual report discusses accounting principles and procedures. May, p. 602.
SEC proposes new accounting rule on stock options. April, p. 503.
Treasury abolishes committee on practice, establishes director of practice. March, p. 375.
Ohlin, Goran, joint author
See Shelton, John P., and Ohlin, Goran.
Oral discussions
Records of oral discussion may be useful. (Editorial) March, p. 293.
Paper (Accountants)
Paper—how to specify, plan, and buy economically for use in the accounting office. McDevitt, Edward J. April, p. 460.
Peace
Should we fear peace? (Editorial) May, p. 549.
Pensions and benefit plans
Accounting for single-premium insurance policy. (CA&AP) May, p. 601.
Personal service companies
Accounts receivable and unbilled costs in personal service businesses. (CA&AP) Jan., p. 75.
Phillips, Jay A.
Some tax factors influencing the operation of the closely-held corporation. Feb., p. 166.
Piaker, Philip M.
"Estimated incollectibles" account is advance write-down of losses, not a fund. (Corr.) March, p. 285.
Podd, George O.
Beware of the expense item that looks deceptively like a capital outlay . . . consistency in charging is essential if results of operations are to be fairly stated. (T&P) May, p. 609.
Powell, Weldon
Procedures the auditor should carry out to determine events after statement date. June, p. 709.
Premiums
Accounting for single-premium insurance policy. (CA&AP) May, p. 601.
Prices
How income-tax sanctions have been applied in wage and price control violations. Goedert, J. P. (T&P) March, p. 352.
Procurement
Accounting and auditing in defense procurement. (Editorial) June, p. 679.
Professional ethics
Confidential relationship between CPA and client. (Editorial) March, p. 294.
Emphasis on ethics. (Editorial) March, p. 292.
Ethical problems of tax practitioners. (Editorial) Jan., p. 34.
New York state's new rules of ethics. (Editorial) April, p. 424.
Rules of professional conduct of the American institute of accountants; complete official text as revised December 19, 1950. April, p. 465.
Professional fees
See Fees
Professional men
As others see us. (Editorial) May, p. 550.
Quasi-reorganizations
Is this an occasion for upward restatement? (CA&AP) March, p. 346.
Rabel, Frederick K.
Financial statements should show corporate surplus restrictions from treasury stock purchase. May, p. 572.
Rappaport, Louis H.
Accountant's responsibility for events occurring after the statement date: the Shonts case. March, p. 332.
Receivables
Accounts receivable and unbilled costs in personal service businesses. (CA&AP) Jan., p. 75.

Auditing receivables purchased "without notice." (CA&AP) Feb., p. 223.
Form of confirmation request letter for use by public accountants. (CA&AP) Jan., p. 76.

Reiling, Herman T.
Tax refunds over $200,000 require special handling; Bureau officer explains procedure. May, p. 567.

Reports and statements
Accountant's opinion—or lack of it—should be made clear on interim reports. Ruggles, Robert W. Jan., p. 51.
Accountant's responsibility for events occurring after the statement date: the Shonts case. Rappaport, Louis H. March, p. 332.
CPAs and bankers help each other to help their clients. Jennings, Alvin R. June, p. 706.
Comments on confirmation, observation need not appear in unqualified report. (CA&AP) March, p. 345.
Disclosure as to observing opening inventories is not required. (CA&AP) May, p. 600.
Financial statements should show corporate surplus restrictions from treasury stock purchase. Rabel, Frederick K. May, p. 572.
Is this an occasion for upward restatement? (CA&AP) March, p. 346.
Poll of Texas banks gives information about independent accountants' reports. (CA&AP) April, p. 467.
Procedures the auditor should carry out to determine events after statement date. Powell, Weldon. June, p. 709.
Some of the dangers inherent in quarterly financial statements. (CA&AP) Feb., p. 221.
Trends in financial reporting. (Editorial) Jan., p. 35.

Research and development
Two ways to budget and control expenditures for research: project costs and expense classification. National industrial conference board. (T&P) May, p. 608.

Revolving credit
Classifying borrowings under "revolving-credit" agreements on the balance-sheet. (CA&AP) June, p. 716.

Romer, Roy R.
Capital-gains treatment of livestock under 1951 amendment to Internal revenue code. (T&P) April, p. 478.

Ross, Mary E. H.
Income-tax position of the family partnership since the 1951 revenue act: some unsettled issues. April, p. 425.

Ross, Raymund A.
Summer internship program suggested to relieve long-run manpower shortage. (Corr.) April, p. 414.

Ruggles, Robert W.
Accountant's opinion—or lack of it—should be made clear on interim reports. Jan., p. 51.

Rural electrification administration
REA issues booklet on independent audits of its borrowers. (CA&AP) March, p. 345.

Salvage
Treatment of fire loss and related gain from salvage. (CA&AP) April, p. 469.

Schisler, Herbert N.
Fraud can take place in well-designed system if working rules are not followed. Feb., p. 176.

Schools
Audit procedures applicable to school districts. (CA&AP) April, p. 467.

Securities
See Investments and securities

Securities and exchange commission
Accountants held not guilty of gross negligence by AIA committee on ethics in SEC II(e) proceeding. (OD&R) June, p. 723.
SEC accounting series release no. 73: the Thomascolor case. (OD&R) Jan., p. 83.
SEC annual report discusses accounting principles and procedures. (OD&R) May, p. 602.
SEC proposes new accounting rule on stock options. (OD&R) April, p. 503.
Suspension of accountants by SEC a dangerous precedent. (Editorial) Jan., p. 33.

Seidman, J.S.
Averaging income won't lessen revenue; it's just fairer to fluctuating incomes. (Corr.) May, p. 543.
Grady's statement doesn't go far enough. (Corr.) Jan., p. 25.
Shareholders want uniform terminology. (Corr.) June, p. 667.

Sharp, G. Arnold
How the U.S.-Canada tax convention agreement works in the Canadian taxation of nonresidents. (T&P) May, p. 606.

Shelton, John P., and Ohlin, Goran
Special deduction from income for tax purposes allowed by Swedish plan to alleviate depressions. (T&P) June, p. 739.

Shonts, et al v. Hirliman, et al
Accountant's responsibility for events occurring after the statement date: the Shonts case. Rappaport, Louis H. March, p. 332.

Slichter, Sumner H.
Should we fear peace? (Editorial) May, p. 549.

Split-ups
Stock dividends and split-ups: accounting treatment by stockholders and corporation—complete text of Accounting research bulletin no. 11 (revised). American institute of accountants. Committee on accounting procedure. Jan., p. 44.

Stettler, Howard F.
Two objections to Hasbrouck's treatment of depreciation for public utilities. (Corr.) March, p. 285.

Stewart, Andrew
Accountants held not guilty of gross negligence by AIA committee on ethics in SEC II(e) proceeding. (OD&R) June, p. 723.

Stock
Financial statement should show corporate surplus restrictions from treasury stock purchase. Rabel, Frederick K. May, p. 572.
Is this an occasion for upward restatement? (CA&AP) March, p. 346.

Stock options
Accounting for stock options. (Editorial) April, p. 423.
Accounting for stock options: why Accounting research bulletin no. 37 was revised. American institute of accountants. Research department. April, p. 436.
Research bulletin (no. 37) on stock options revised; compensation measured as of date granted. American institute of accountants. Committee on accounting procedure. March, p. 310.
SEC proposes new accounting rule on stock options. (OD&R) April, p. 503.

Students department
English chartered accountant candidates face battery of exams. May, p. 632.
Misuse of worksheets. Feb., p. 249.
Questions on current theory. April, p. 513.
References for accounting practice. Jan., p. 124.
References for November auditing examination. Feb., p. 249.
References for theory questions. March, p. 384.
Uniform certified public accountant examination, May 1953, June, p. 743.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in accounting practice, Part I, Nov. 1952. Jan., p. 114.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in accounting practice, Part II, Nov. 1952. Feb., p. 250.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in auditing, Nov. 1952. March, p. 379.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in commercial law, Nov. 1952; answers prepared by Fontaine C. Bradley. May, p. 632.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in theory of accounts, Nov. 1952. April, p. 506.

Surplus
Financial statements should show corporate surplus restrictions from treasury stock purchase. Rabel, Frederick K. May, p. 572.
Wanted: a clear, unambiguous, unequivocal replacement for the term "earned surplus." Wendt, A. P. Feb., p. 206.

Sweden
Special deduction from income for tax purposes allowed by Swedish plan to alleviate depressions. (T&P) June, p. 739.

Sweeney, Charles T.
OPS official comments on accelerated amortization under OPS rules. (Corr.) March, p. 286.

Taggart, Herbert F.
Troubles that arise when government control agencies try to prescribe accounting procedures. March, p. 296.

Tax appeals
Single court of tax appeals? (Editorial) June, p. 678.

Tax clinic; a department, edited by J. K. Lasser
Charitable gifts of income. April, p. 470.
Demise of a partner. Feb., p. 220.
Economist discusses the tax adviser. March, p. 349.
Excess-profits-credit toughie. Feb., p. 218.
Insurance for buy-sell agreements. April, p. 473.
International businesses. May, p. 598.
Limited partnerships get investors to kick in. May, p. 599.
Loophole seeking. March, p. 349.
Monatt's revised book. March, p. 349.
More on tax loophole cases. June, p. 719.
New kink in EP taxes. Jan., p. 71.
New partners and section 107(a) Feb., p. 217.
Penalties under SEC rules. March, p. 348.
Personal holding companies. March, p. 348.
Problems with discount bonds. Jan., p. 71.
Ranching with little pieces of paper. Feb., p. 217.

Robertson and taxability of awards and scholarship grants. Feb., p. 219.
Rudick on excess-profits-tax gadgets. May, p. 597.
Sale of a franchise to a partner is capital gain. April, p. 470.
Shift of inventory accounting. June, p. 719.
Taking advance deposits. March, p. 350.
There's no place like a blue lake for blue grass. Jan., p. 73.
Trusts should be examined carefully if used as a method to minimize taxes. Jan., p. 72.
What is fair market value? June, p. 720.

Taxation
Accounting principles and taxable income—Supplementary statement no. 4, August 1, 1952. American accounting association. Committee on concepts and standards underlying corporate financial statements. (OD&R) Feb., p. 241.
Attractive tax features of discount bonds should make them useful as tax-planning instruments. Morris, Augustus. March, p. 305.
Bureau upheld by courts in 80 per cent of tax cases tried; 64 per cent of non-docketed cases closed by agreement. (T&P) June, p. 744–6.
Capital-gains treatment of livestock under 1951 amendment to Internal revenue code. Romer, Roy R. (T&P) April, p. 478.
Changing tax climate. (Editorial) March, p. 291.
EPT liability resulting from installment sales under current law, contrasted with 1942 law. Brown, John E. (T&P) Jan., p. 65.
Ethical problems of tax practitioners. (Editorial) Jan., p. 34.
How income-tax sanctions have been applied in wage and price control violations. Goedert, J. P. (T&P) March, p. 352.
How the U.S.-Canada tax convention agreement works in Canadian taxation of nonresidents. Sharp, G. Arnold. (T&P) May, p. 606.
How to increase the charitable deduction by gifts other than cash. Lasser, J. K. June, p. 701.
Income-tax position of the family partnership since the 1951 revenue act: some unsettled issues. Ross, Mary E.H. April, p. 425.
King committee reports—Committee on practice abolished. (Editorial) Feb., p. 161.
Procedures to organize preparation of individual tax returns in the CPA's office. Lasser, S. Jay. Feb., p. 190.
Special deduction from income for tax purposes allowed by Swedish plan to alleviate depressions. Shelton, John P., and Ohlin, Goran. (T&P) June, p. 739.
Tax refunds over $200,000 require special handling; Bureau officer explains procedure. Reiling, Herman T. May, p. 567.
Tax supervisor runs tax course for credit men to help them appraise customers' tax situations. Gebhardt, Charles H. (T&P) June, p. 745.
Taxation of the foreign businessman visiting the United States. Mayer, Emilio. Jan., p. 56.
Taxes in the United States triple in the past decade; federal government gets lion's share of the increase. United States. Department of commerce. (T&P) Jan., p. 66.
Treasury abolishes committee on practice, establishes director of practice. (OD&R) March, p. 375.
U.S. Supreme court denies ordinary-loss deduction to post-liquidation transferee. Gutkin, Sydney A., and Beck, David. March, p. 314.

Technical and professional notes; a department
Applying auditing techniques to non-accounting activities useful to both auditor and management. Meriney, D.I. Jan., p. 64.
Beware of the expense item that looks deceptively like a capital outlay . . . consistency in charging is essential if results of operations are to be fairly stated. Podd, George O. May, p. 609.
Book bonus plan in CPA office achieves wider reading by staff men. Brooke, Winston. April, p. 475.
Bureau of internal revenue prints, distributes yearly total of 494 million forms. May, p. 607.
Bureau upheld by courts in 80 per cent of tax cases tried; 64 per cent of non-docketed cases closed by agreement. Berkshire, Stewart. June, p. 744.
Capital-gains treatment of livestock under 1951 amendment to Internal revenue code. Romer, Roy R. April, p. 478.
EPT liability resulting from installment sales under current law, contrasted with 1942 law. Brown, John E. Jan., p. 65.
Eleven requirements for a good budgeting system, and five reasons why more companies don't use them. Draper, V. R. March, p. 351.
Five rules for controlling and accounting for large volume of small items of equipment—Successful practice in hotel industry suggests ideas for other businesses. Nolin, Joseph H. Feb., p. 229.
How changes in management are affecting the task of getting work done in the office. McCabe, James E. April, p. 481.
How controller of a newspaper can solve the month-end and year-end work load problem. Killian, G. Elliott. Feb., p. 230.
How income-tax sanctions have been applied in wage and price control violations. Goedert, J. P. March, p. 352.
How the U.S.-Canada tax convention agreement works in Canadian taxation of nonresidents. Sharp, G. Arnold. May, p. 606.
How the "white collar" is losing its luster as a badge of superiority: a study of work incentives. Mills, C. Wright. April, p. 488.
Industrial budget for small companies is actually an operations plan shown in dollars. National industrial conference board. Feb., p. 227.
Pros and cons of direct costing as contrasted with full costing. Beckett, John A. April, p. 482.
Some curious effects of present tax law on the need for insurance coverage. Murtagh, James P. March, p. 357.
Some factors affecting office machine selection. Norcross, H. H. April, p. 475.
Some perspectives on the valuation of commercial assets. Kennett, Leo. Jan., p. 68.
South American prosperity has created acute need for accountants. Brown, John. April, p. 477.
Special deduction from income for tax purposes allowed by Swedish plan to alleviate depressions. Shelton, John P., and Ohlin, Goran. (T&P) June, p. 739.
States vary widely in rules on CPA reciprocity and temporary practice provisions. American institute of accountants. April, p. 474.
Suggested new form of general ledger simplifies location of errors. Tuchmann, Ernst. March, p. 354.
Tax supervisor runs tax course for credit men to help them appraise customers' tax situations. Gebhardt, Charles H. (T&P) June, p. 745.
Taxes in the United States triple in the past decade; federal government gets lion's share of the increase. United States. Department of commerce. Jan., p. 66.
Two ways to budget and control expenditures for research: project costs and expense classification. National industrial conference board. May, p. 608.
What the CPA should know about deductible property or liability insurance (it's cheaper, it prevents losses). Hall, Sydney L. Jan., p. 70.

Thomascolor, inc.
SEC accounting series release no. 73: the Thomascolor case. (OD&R) Jan., p. 83.
Suspension of accountants by SEC a dangerous precedent. (Editorial) Jan., p. 33.

Tilly, Virgil
Obligations of the independent public accountant to his profession. June, p. 714.

Treasury abolishes committee on practice, establishes director of practice. (OD&R) March, p. 375.

Tuchmann, Ernst
Suggested new form of general ledger simplifies location of errors. (T&P) March, p. 354.

United States. Commerce, Department of
Taxes in the United States triple in the past decade; federal government gets lion's share of the increase. (T&P) Jan., p. 66.

United States. Defense, Department of
Department of defense directive—Treatment of depreciation on emergency facilities covered by certificates of necessity for contract pricing purposes—number 4105.34, 10 December, 1952. Feb., p. 186.

Valuation
Some perspectives on the valuation of commercial assets. Kennett, Leo. (T&P) Jan., p. 68.

Wald, Nathan
Averaged income-taxation unrealistic: reduces revenues, hurts steady earners. (Corr.) Feb., p. 155.

Walker, George T.
Why purchased goodwill should be amortized on a systematic basis. Feb., p. 210.

Weber, Russell E.
Accountants can help management make reports more useful to stockholders. (Corr.) Jan., p. 28.

Webster, Paul K
Method of accounting for emergency facilities may be a major factor in income determination. May, p. 580.

Wendt, A. P.
Wanted: a clear, unambiguous, unequivocal replacement for the term "earned surplus." Feb., p. 206.

Witschey, Robert E.
Three challenges to every CPA serving small local clients. March, p. 320.

Work simplification
Accountant's natural advantages in developing work simplification programs. Bergstrom, Kenneth H. April, p. 449.

The JOURNAL of ACCOUNTANCY

Index to Volume 96 • July, 1953 – December, 1953

Accountants' fees
See Wages, fees, salaries, etc.

Accountants' office
Building and keeping a clientele requires basic analysis and military tactics. Fagerberg, Dixon, Jr. Oct., p. 460.
How to use the client's personnel to save audit time before the actual audit begins. Porter, James W. Aug., p. 193.
Valuation of goodwill in a professional practice. Society of incorporated accountants and auditors. (OD&R) Sept., p. 361.

Accounting and accountants
Accounting and fair competition. (Editorial) Sept., p. 293.
Accounting burned alive. (Editorial) Dec., p. 681.
Auditor's responsibility when asset values are written up. (CA&AP) Sept., p. 348.
Corporation explains significance of audit reports. (Editorial) July, p. 35.
Facts for CPA installing new bookkeeping system and equipment in company not previously a client. Blair, Arthur H. July, p. 68.
How far do the courts go in upholding accounting principles for determining income. Simon, Sidney I. Dec., p. 683.
Importance of accounting to international finance. (Editorial) Nov., p. 551.
Installment method of accounting as applied to retail credit jewelry stores. Sanders, Dan H. (T&P) July, p. 89.
Pennsylvania applies ethical standards to all CPAs. (Editorial) Sept., p. 297.
Public accounting and private accounting. (Editorial). Nov., p. 553.
Relations of auditors with board of directors. (Editorial Dec., p. 680.
Restatement of Accounting research bulletins. (Editorial) Oct., p. 424.
Social responsibility of certified public accountants. (Editorial) Aug., p. 164.
Three necessary elements in recruitment of staff and in maintaining efficiency and morale. Johnson, Charles E. Dec., p. 695.
Value of professional unity. (Editorial) Aug., p. 165.
What they (economists) say about us (accountants). Dohr, James L., Aug., p. 167.

Accounts receivable
Tax provision for uncollected profit on installment accounts receivable. (CA&AP) Sept., p. 346.

Aitken, John N.
Public accounting and private accounting. (Editorial) Nov., p. 553.

American institute of accountants
Some problems regarding consolidated and parent company statements. Nov., p. 570.
Uniform certified public accountant examination November, 1953. Dec., p. 748.

Ames, Glen R.
Effective sales management needs strong accounting support. (T&P) Dec., p. 726.

Appeals court upholds conviction of accountant for failing to produce tax records. (OD&R) July, p. 110.

Assets
Indictment of the accounting profession for failing to deal with effects of inflation. Peloubet, Maurice E. Dec., p. 714.

Atomic energy
Inventory accounting for atomic energy process materials at the AEC. Hall, Ed. July, p. 62.

Audit bureau of circulations
Another kind of auditing: the story of the Audit bureau of circulations. Lasser, J. K. Oct., p. 464.

Auditing and auditors
Audit short stories: two cases where perseverance paid off. Keller, William M. (T&P) Oct., p. 489.
Codification not intended to change auditing standards. (CA&AP) July, p. 82.
Conformance to auditing standards by all accountants is necessary. (CA&AP) Dec., p. 730.
How to use the client's personnel to save audit time before the actual audit begins. Porter, James W. Aug., p. 193.
New developments in auditing by independent certified public accountants. Jennings, Alvin R. July, p. 37.
Opinion denied because of exception as to principles. (CA&AP) Sept., p. 246.
Relations of auditors with board of directors. (Editorial) Dec., p. 680.

Automobile rental
Automobile leasing: the arithmetic of renting rather than buying company cars. Tippie, Henry B. (T&P) Dec., p. 727.

Balance sheet
Resurgence of the balance-sheet as a useful element in financial analysis. Werntz, William W. Nov., p. 555.

Baldwin, Rosecrans.
CPA's problem when restrictive clauses in loan agreements are unclear or inconsistent. Aug., p. 190.

Bank confirmations
Why the CPA should always use the standard form when requesting information from a bank. Heilmann, Charles P. (T&P) Sept., p. 341.

Banks and bankers
For better bank audit control. (Editorial) July, p. 36.
What are the common aims of bankers, accountants, and businessmen-borrowers? Price, William G. F. Oct., p. 474.

Barker, Fletcher
Functions of the accountant in auditing business handling escrow agreements. Sept., p. 324.

Barrowcliff, C. Percy
Value of professional unity. (Editorial) Aug., p. 165.

Bayly, Charles B., Jr.
Proper use of section 107 lessens tax burden on lump-sum income. Nov., p. 582.

Bevis, Herman W.
Play-by-play description of how a CPA exam is created, administered, and graded. Sept., p. 298.

Blair, Arthur H.
Facts for CPA installing new bookkeeping system and equipment in company not previously a client. July, p. 68.

Blau, John
Maybe two quarters and a half-dollar weigh the same, but they feel different. (Corr.) Dec., p. 667.

Key: CA&AP—Current Accounting & Auditing Problems; Corr.—Correspondence; OD&R—Official Decisions and Releases; SD—Students Department; T&P—Technical & Professional Notes

Blough, Carman G., editor
See Current accounting and auditing problems; a department
Bordner, H. W.
Gains in accounting, auditing techniques have already begun, says defense official. (Corr.) Aug., p. 154.
Bradley, Fontaine C.
Answers to Uniform certified public accountant examination in commercial law, May 1953. (SD) Nov., p. 608.
Braun, Carl F.
Accounting burned alive. (Editorial) Dec., p. 681.
Bretey, Pierre R.
Accountant's contribution to profitability of railroad operating income. (T&P) Sept., p. 344.
Brooks, E. Stanley
Unusual presentation of net worth on a proprietorship balance-sheet. (T&P) Sept., p. 342.
Brown, J. E.
Applause for suggestion that special professional qualifications be recognized. (Corr.) Dec., p. 667.
Budgets, National
Mr. Ruml's new plan. (Editorial) Oct., p. 423.
Business
Creep. Dixon, Robert L. July, p. 48.
Capital
Can there be specific rules for capitalization of borderline expenditures? Cole, LeRoy H. (T&P) July, p. 92.
Tax consequences of inadequate equity capital: the thin corporation problem. Kramer, Jay O. Oct., p. 449.
Caterpillar tractor company
Corporation explains significance of audit reports. (Editorial) July, p. 35.
Explaining the annual report: Caterpillar tractor puts questions and answers in its employee magazine. Whitlock, A. N. (T&P) July, p. 84.
Certificate or opinion
Corporation explains significance of audit reports. (Editorial) July, p. 35.
Opinion denied because of exception as to principles. (CA&AP) Sept., p. 246.
Problems encountered by accountant when expressing an opinion on cash-basis statements. Hill, Gordon M. Sept., p. 309.
Reporting omission of extended procedures. (CA&AP) Nov., p. 619.
SEC requires revision of statements where auditor denied opinion. (CA&AP) Dec., p. 731.
Ten questions the accountant should ask himself when giving an opinion on supplementary income information. Raun, Donald L. (T&P) Aug., p. 223.
Cloe, Carl W.
Shall price level changes be removed from computations of capital gain or loss? (T&P) Oct., p. 484.
Cole, LeRoy H.
Can there be specific rules for capitalization of borderline expenditures? (T&P) July, p. 92.
Competition
Accounting and fair competition. (Editorial) Sept., p. 293.
Consolidations and mergers
Some problems regarding consolidated and parent company statements. American institute of accountants. Nov., p. 570.
Cooperatives
Methods of allocating deferred patronage refunds in a cooperative. (CA&AP) Nov., p. 620.
Correspondence
Accounting? Accountancy? Australian asks for accurate professional label. Milne, K. L. Aug., p. 160.
Applause for suggestion that special professional qualifications be recognized. Brown, J. E. Dec., p. 667.
Author's comment: Tax court may not reflect best accounting practice. Nielsen, Oswald. Dec., p. 672.
Change in balance-sheets would improve some clients' credit standing. Fagan, Arthur H. July, p. 24.
Charges Dohr relies on too few economists while indicting too many. Lefko, Orville B. Dec., p. 667.
Defense department manuals intended to aid less-qualified personnel. Kramer, David M. Aug., p. 160.
Fifth circuit decision raises question about rules of civil procedure. Hays, Leonard K. Oct. p. 418.
Gains in accounting, auditing techniques have already begun, says defense official. Bordner, H.W. Aug., p. 154.
Good business accounting for government. Ruml, Beardsley. Dec., p. 668.
Higher starting salaries might attract more men to accounting. Goldstein, Byron S. July, p. 28.
Horrible example of auditor's opinion discovered by GAO official. Smith, Frederic H. Aug., p. 153.
If insurance policies bother you, why not do something about them? Taylor, Harry E. July, p. 23.
Income taxes are a sharing of profit, not an expense of doing business. Murphy, Willard J. Nov., p. 541.
Inheritor of "dark ages" certificate says things are getting better. Perry, R. S. Nov., p. 544.
Instead of debating over lifo, let's eliminate its shortcomings. Weinwurm, Ernest H. Sept., p. 288.
Journal ads for bookkeeping aids serve useful purpose. MacDougall, Colville. Sept., p. 290.
Journal charged with blurring distinction between bookkeeping and accounting. Hill, John B. July, p. 30.
Maybe two quarters and a half-dollar weigh the same, but they feel different. Blau, John. Dec., p. 667.
More responsibility, fewer rigid rules, held cure for confusion in auditing. Goldberg, Louis S. Oct., p. 415.
Mr. Wendt, author of "earned surplus" terminology article, replies to critics. Wendt, A. P. Sept., p. 285.
New form of balance-sheet is easier for client and bankers to understand. Rice, Charles E. Nov., p. 541.
One state allows relevant price index as basis for translating original cost. Wilson, Robert E. Dec., p. 668.
Profession should be honored, not alarmed, by extension of term "audit." Stepnick, Edward W. July, p. 23.
Recommended amendments to renegotiation act. Gunzer, C. Richard. Nov., p. 542.
SEC treatment of stock options is bad, but ARB 37 (revised) isn't much better. Landman, J. H. July, p. 24.
Simplification of tax reporting sends carbon of federal return to state. Stock, Maxwell. Dec., p. 676.
Some reasons why one reader can't swallow lifo. Moyer, Eugene C. Sept., p. 286.
Suggested answer to CPA exam question accused of "technical gobbledygook." Rester, Roy V. July, p. 23.
Tax court decision seems to disallow direct cost valuation of inventories. Fenton, Sidney J. Dec., p. 670.
To afford higher salaries, raise accounting fees. Schneider, Paul D. July, p. 28.
Two quarters may feel lighter than one-half-dollar, but they weigh the same. Taylor, Harry E. Dec., p. 667.
Use of "accumulated profits" instead of "earned surplus" keeps clients happy. Yellin, Morris Nov., p. 546.
Wendt article on replacement for term "earned surplus" brings three answers, by W. R. Hassard, H. C. Miranda and M. Guion Lee. Sept., p. 285.
Why not put workmen's compensation insurance reports on a quarterly basis? Slotnick, E. H. Oct., p. 415.
Year-end balance-sheet adjustment for showing in accounts effect of inflation. Freeman, E. Stewart. Aug., p. 153.
Cost accounting
From England: seven provocative ideas on how to make cost accounting simpler and more useful. Lancaster, Norman G. (T&P) Dec., p. 723.
Court decisions
How far do the courts go in upholding accounting principles for determining income? Simon, Sidney I. Dec., p. 683.
Credit
How to improve commercial credit standing. (Editorial) Dec., p. 679.
Creep. Dixon, Robert L. July, p. 48.
Current accounting and auditing problems; a department edited by Carman G. Blough
Auditor's responsibility when asset values are written up. Sept., p. 348.
Codification not intended to change auditing standards. July, p. 82.
Conformance to auditing standards by all accountants is necessary. Dec., p. 730.
Improper accounting for discount on mortgages purchased. Dec., p. 729.
Long-form reports analyzed in new Institute publication. Oct., p. 479.
Methods of allocating deferred patronage refunds in a cooperative. Nov., p. 620.
Opinion denied because of exception as to principles. Sept., p. 246.
Reporting omission of extended procedures. Nov., p. 619.
SEC requires revision of statements where auditor denied opinion. Dec., p. 731.
Some questions and answers on treasury stock and stock dividends. Oct., p. 478.
Tax provision for uncollected profit on installment accounts receivable. Sept., p. 346.
Treatment of "capital-gain dividends" by fiduciary shareholders. Aug., p. 220.
Treatment of promotional shares held in escrow. Aug., p. 221.
Davidson, Sidney
U. S. Supreme court decisions affecting public utility depreciation. Sept., p. 331.
Depreciation
Is depreciation for hospitals good accounting practice? Morey, Lloyd. (T&P) Dec., p. 725.
New depreciation policy for tax purposes. (Editorial) July, p. 33.
Text of Bureau release on new depreciation policy. United States. Bureau of internal revenue. July, p. 101

U. S. Supreme court decisions affecting public utility depreciation. Davidson, Sidney. Sept., p. 331.
Direct costs
Effect of direct costing on asset accounting, income reporting. Hosick, Ted R. Oct., p. 444.
How direct costing works internally and externally for a small manufacturer. Nielsen, Oswald. Aug., p. 197.
Directors
Relations of auditors with board of directors. (Editorial) Dec., p. 680.
Disbursements
General electric's system for protecting against fraud and error in disbursement. (T&P) Nov., p. 605.
Discount
Improper accounting for discount on mortgages purchased. (CA&AP) Dec., p. 729.
Dividends
Accounting for stock dividends: a dissent from current recommended practice. Wilcox, Edward B. Aug., p. 176.
Some questions and answers on treasury stock and stock dividends. (CA&AP) Oct., p. 478.
Stock dividends and concepts of income. May, George O. Oct., p. 427.
Treatment of "capital-gain dividends" by fiduciary shareholders. (CA&AP) Aug., p. 220.
Dixon, Robert L.
Creep. July, p. 48.
Dohr, James L.
What they (economists) say about us (accountants). Aug., p. 167.
Donnelly v. United States
Appeals court upholds conviction of accountant for failing to produce tax records. (OD&R) July, p. 110.
Economics
What they (economists) say about us (accountants). Dohr, James L. Aug., p. 167.
Editorials
Accounting and fair competition. Sept., p. 293.
Accounting burned alive. Dec., p. 681.
Accounting for socialized industry. Aug., p. 163.
Corporation explains significance of audit reports. July, p. 35.
Don't make Christmas gifts to internal revenue employees. Nov., p. 552.
Financing small business. July, p. 34.
For better bank audit control. July, p. 36.
Goodbye, Bureau: Hello, Service. Sept., p. 296.
How to improve commercial credit standing. Dec., p. 679.
Importance of accounting to international finance. Nov., p. 551.
Incorporation of stock exchange firms. Nov., p. 552.
Institute's tax testimony. Sept., p. 294.
Mr. Ruml's new plan. Oct., p. 423.
New depreciation policy for tax purposes. July, p. 33.
Pennsylvania applies ethical standards to all CPAs. Sept., p. 297.
Public accounting and private accounting. Nov., p. 553.
Relations of auditors with board of directors. Dec., p. 680.
Renegotiation act amended without hearing. Sept., p. 295.
Restatement of Accounting research bulletins. Oct., p. 424.
Sales taxes and income taxes. Dec., p. 681.
Social responsibility of certified public accountants. Aug., p. 164.
Specialization in the professions. Oct., p. 425.
Value of professional unity. Aug., p. 165.
Electronic machines
See Mechanical devices
Errors
How to find transposition errors by expanding the arithmetical rule of nine. Neely, Fred T. Oct., p. 470.
Escrow
Functions of the accountant in auditing businesses handling escrow agreements. Barker, Fletcher. Sept., p. 324.
Treatment of promotional shares held in escrow. (CA&AP) Aug., p. 221.
Examinations
Dates for the CPA examination. (SD) Aug., p. 243.
Play-by-play description of how a CPA exam is created, administered, and graded. Bevis, Herman W. Sept., p. 298.
References for Accounting practice, II. (SD) July, p. 118.
References for auditing examination. (SD) Aug., p. 243.
References for theory. (SD) Sept., p. 386.
Uniform certified public accountant examination November 1953. American institute of accountants. Dec., p. 748.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in accounting practice, Part I, May 1953. (SD) July, p. 118.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in accounting practice, Part II, May 1953. (SD) Aug., p. 244.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in auditing, May 1953. (SD) Sept., p. 378.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in commercial law, May 1953, Answers prepared by Fontaine C. Bradley. (SD) Nov., p. 608.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in theory of accounts, May 1953. Oct., p. 506.
Fagan, Arthur H.
Change in balance-sheets would improve some clients' credit standing. (Corr.) July, p. 24.
Fagerberg, Dixon, Jr.
Building and keeping a clientele requires basic analysis and military tactics. Oct., p. 460.
Falsone, Frank J. v. U. S.
Fifth circuit holds accountants must produce client's tax records, though state law grants privilege. (OD&R) Aug., p. 238.
Fees
See Wages, fees, salaries, etc.
Fenton, Sidney J.
Tax court decision seems to disallow direct cost valuation of inventories. (Corr.) Dec., p. 670.
Franklin, Donald R. L.
Profit-sharing retirement trust too little used as means of accumulating estate. Nov., p. 600.
Freeman, E. Stewart
Year-end balance-sheet adjustment for showing in accounts effect of inflation. (Corr.) Aug., p. 153.
Funston, Keith
Importance of accounting to international finance. (Editorial) Nov., p. 551.
Further notes from Mr. Folsom on how the tax program will affect small business . . . from testimony before House committee on small business, May 21, 1953. (OD&R) July, p. 106.
Gallagher, Buell G.
Social responsibility of certified public accountants. (Editorial) Aug., p. 164.
General electric company
General electric's system for protecting against fraud and error in disbursement. (T&P) Nov., p. 605.
Gifts
Don't make Christmas gifts to internal revenue employees. (Editorial) Nov., p. 552.
Goldberg, Louis S.
More responsibility, fewer rigid rules, held cure for confusion in auditing. (Corr.) Oct., p. 415.
Goldstein, Byron S.
Higher starting salaries might attract more men to accounting. (Corr.) July p. 28.
Gole, V. L.
How important is the statement of funds? (T&P) Sept., p. 343.
Goodwill
Valuation of goodwill in a professional practice. Society of incorporated accountants and auditors. (OD&R) Sept., p. 361.
Government
Accounting for socialized industry. (Editorial) Aug., p. 163.
Problems of property utilization and accounting in the federal government. Katon, William E. Sept., p. 316.
Government contracts
Explanation of new records clause for cost-type defense contracts. Wright, Howard W. July, p. 56.
Renegotiation act amended without hearing. (Editorial) Sept., p. 295.
Gunzer, C. Richard
Recommended amendments to renegotiation act. (Corr.) Nov., p. 542.
Hall, Ed
Inventory accounting for atomic energy process materials of the AEC. July, p. 62.
Harrow, Benjamin
Analysis of 17 new amendments to IRC made by Technical changes act of 1953. Oct., p. 438.
Harvey, Arthur A.
Drafting audit report before final examination saves time for client, accountant, and clerical staff. (T&P) Aug., p. 224.
Hays, Leonard K.
Fifth circuit decision raises question about rules of civil procedure. (Corr.) Oct., p. 418.
Heilmann, Charles P.
Why the CPA should always use the standard form when requesting information from a bank. (T&P) Sept., p. 341.
Hill, Gordon M.
Problems encountered by accountant when expressing an opinion on cash-basis statements. Sept., p. 309.

Hill, John B.
Journal charged with blurring distinction between bookkeeping and accounting. (Corr.) July, p. 30.
Hosick, T. R.
Effect of direct costing on asset accounting, income reporting. Oct., p. 444.
Howrey, Edward F.
Accounting and fair competition. (Editorial) Sept., p. 293.
Income
How far do the courts go in upholding accounting principles for determining income? Simon, Sidney I. Dec., p. 683.
Premature revenue recognition. Paton, William A. Oct., p. 432.
Stock dividends and concepts of income. May, George O. Oct., p. 427.
Ten questions the accountant should ask himself when giving an opinion on supplementary income information. Raun, Donald L. (T&P) Aug., p. 223.
Inflation
Indictment of the accounting profession for failing to deal with effects of inflation. Peloubet, Maurice E. Dec., p. 714.
Installments
Installment method of accounting as applied to retail credit jewelry stores. Sanders, Dan H. (T&P) July, p. 89.
Tax provision for uncollected profit on installment accounts receivable. (CA&AP) Sept., p. 346.
Internal auditors
How the internal auditor can properly help the independent CPA perform annual audit. Lee, George A. Dec., p. 711.
Internal revenue
Don't make Christmas gifts to internal revenue employees. (Editorial) Nov., p. 552.
Goodbye, Bureau: Hello, Service. (Editorial) Sept., p. 296.
New depreciation policy for tax purposes. (Editorial) July, p. 33.
Text of Bureau release on new depreciation policy. (OD&R) July, p. 101.
International finance
Importance of accounting to international finance. (Editorial) Nov., p. 551.
Inventories
Inventory accounting for atomic energy process materials at the AEC. Hall, Ed. July, p. 62.
Reasons why the accounting profession should encourage a broader utilization of lifo. van Pelt, John V., III. Oct., p. 452.
Jennings, Alvin R.
New developments in auditing by independent certified public accountants. July, p. 37.
Jewelry retailers
Installment method of accounting as applied to retail jewelry stores. Sanders, Dan H. (T&P) July., p. 89.
Jewett, Grandjean G.
Survey of available electronic computers, and what they can do for modern businesses. Aug., p. 182.
Johnson, Charles E.
Three necessary elements in recruitment of staff and in maintaining efficiency and morale. Dec., p. 695.
Johnson, Robert W.
Statistical techniques need deeper study before they can be useful in auditing. Sept., p. 336.
Joiner, Charles W.
Specialization in the professions. (Editorial) Oct., p. 425.
Kane, Robert L., Jr., editor
See Students department
Katon, William E.
Problems of property utilization and accounting in the federal government. Sept., p. 316.
Keller, William M.
Audit short stories: two cases where perseverance paid off. (T&P) Oct., p. 489.
Kelly, Lincoln G.
Value to the individual professional man of strict adherence to his code of ethics. Nov., p. 577.
Kramer, David M.
Defense department manuals intended to aid less-qualified personnel. (Corr.) Aug., p. 160.
Kramer, Jay O.
Tax consequences of inadequate equity capital: the thin corporation problem. Oct., p. 449.
Lancaster, Norman G.
From England: seven provocative ideas on how to make cost accounting simpler and more useful. (T&P) Dec., p. 723.
Landman, J. H.
SEC treatment of stock options is bad, but ARB 37 (revised) isn't much better. (Corr.) July, p. 24.
Lasser, J. K.
Another kind of auditing: the story of the Audit bureau of circulations. Oct., p. 464.
Lasser, J. K., editor
See Tax clinic; a department
Lee, George A.
How the internal auditor can properly help the independent CPA perform annual audit. Dec., p. 711.
Lefko, Orville B.
Charges Dohr relies on too few economists while indicting too many. (Corr.) Dec., p. 667.
Liabilities
Simple way to compute current portion of long-term liability. Reich, Marion R. (T&P) Dec., p. 727.
Loans
CPA's problem when restrictive clauses in loan agreements are unclear or inconsistent. Baldwin, Rosecrans. Aug., p. 190.
"Long-form report practice"
Long-form reports analyzed in new Institute publication. (CA&AP) Oct., p. 479.
MacDougall, Colville
Journal ads for bookkeeping aids serve useful purpose. (Corr.) Sept., p. 290.
Management control
Public accounting and private accounting. (Editorial) Nov., p. 553.
Mautz, R. K.
Emphasis on reporting, not calculation, could settle income statement controversy. Aug., p. 212.
May, George O.
Stock dividends and concepts of income. Oct., p. 427.
Mechanical devices
Facts for CPA installing new bookkeeping system and equipment in company not previously a client. July, p. 68.
Survey of available electronic computers, and what they can do for modern businesses. Jewett, Grandjean G. Aug., p. 182.
Milne, K. L.
Accounting? Accountancy? Australian asks for accurate professional label. (Corr.) Aug., p. 160.
Moonitz, Maurice
How realistic are modern accounting procedures in the valuation of business capital? (T&P) July, p. 86.
Morey, Lloyd
Is depreciation for hospitals good accounting practice. (T&P) Dec., p. 725.
Mortensen, Clair M.
Current evaluation of estate and trust taxation of interest to the CPA. Aug., p. 206.
Mortgages
Improper accounting for discount on mortgages purchased. (CA&AP) Dec., p. 729.
Moyer, Eugene C.
Some reasons why one reader can't swallow lifo. (Corr.) Sept., p. 286.
Murphy, Willard J.
Income taxes are a sharing of profit, not an expense of doing business. (Corr.) Nov., p. 541.
Myers, John H.
Some examples of useful variations in the modern short-form audit report. Nov., p. 588.
National coal board
Accounting for socalized industry. (Editorial) Aug., p. 163.
Neely, Fred T.
How to find transposition errors by expanding the arithmetical rule of nine. Oct., p. 470.
Net worth
Unusual presentation of net worth on a proprietorship balance-sheet. Brooks, E. Stanley. (T&P) Sept., p. 342.
Nielsen, Oswald
Author's comment: Tax court may not reflect best accounting practice. (Corr.) Dec., p. 672.
How direct costing works internally and externally for a small manufacturer. Aug., p. 197.
Novak, Robert E.
Advantages of payroll procedure which deducts income tax and FICA withholdings simultaneoulsy by using a prepared table. (T&P) Oct., p. 491.
"Objective accounting"
Accounting burned alive. (Editorial) Dec., p. 681.
Official decisions and releases; a department
Appeals court upholds conviction of accountant for failing to produce tax records. July, p. 110.
Fifth circuit holds accountants must produce client's tax records, though state law grants privilege. Aug., p. 238.
Further notes from Mr. Folsom on how the tax program will affect small business . . . from testimony before House committee on small business, May 21, 1953. July, p. 106.
Text of Bureau release on new depreciation policy. United States Bureau of internal revenue. July, p. 101.
Treasury official describes tax research program. July, p. 102.

Valuation of goodwill in a professional practice. Society of incorporated accountants and auditors. Sept., p. 361.

Opinion
See Certificate or opinion

Parent companies
Some problems regarding consolidated and parent company statements. American institute of accountants. Nov., p. 570.

Paton, William A.
Premature revenue recognition. Oct., p. 432.

Patronage refunds
See Cooperatives

Payrolls
Advantages of payroll procedure which deducts income tax and FICA withholdings simultaneously by using a prepared table. Novak, Robert E. (T&P) Oct., p. 491.

Peloubet, Maurice E.
Indictment of the accounting profession for failing to deal with effects of inflation. Dec., p. 714.

Perry, R. S.
Inheritor of "dark ages" certificate says things are getting better. (Corr.) Nov., p. 544.

Pierce, James L.
Public accounting and private accounting. (Editorial) Nov., p. 553.

Pierce, Melville
Taxability of prepayments in the United States, Canada, and Britain. July, p. 72.

Porter, James W.
How to use the client's personnel to save audit time before the actual audit begins. Aug., p. 193.

Price, William G. F.
What are the common aims of bankers, accountants, and businessmen-borrowers? Oct., p. 474.

Prices
Shall price level changes be removed from computations of capital gain or loss? Cloe, Carl W. (T&P) Oct., p. 484.

Professional ethics
Appeals court upholds conviction of accountant for failing to produce tax records. (OD&R) July, p. 110.
Fifth circuit holds accountants must produce client's tax records, though state law grants privilege. (OD&R) Aug., p. 238.
Pennsylvania applies ethical standard to all CPAs. (Editorial) Sept., p. 297.
Specialization in the professions. (Editorial) Oct., p. 425.
Value to the individual professional man of strict adherence to his code of ethics. Kelly, Lincoln G. Nov., p. 577.

Profit sharing
Profit-sharing retirement trust too little used as means of accumulating estate. Franklin, Donald R. L. Nov., p. 600.

Property
Problems of property utilization and accounting in the federal government. Katon, William E. Sept., p. 316.

Proprietorships
Unusual presentation of net worth on a proprietorship balance-sheet. Brooks, E. Stanley. (T&P) Sept., p. 342.

Railroads
Accountant's contribution to profitability of railroad operating income. Bretey, Pierre R. (T&P) Sept., p. 344.

Raun, Donald L.
Ten questions the accountant should ask himself when giving an opinion on supplementary income information. (T&P) Aug., p. 223.

Reich, Marion R.
Simple way to compute current portion of long-term liability. (T&P) Dec., p. 727.

Reports and statements
Corporation explains significance of audit reports. (Editorial) July, p. 35.
Drafting audit report before final examination saves time for client, accountant, and clerical staff. Harvey, Arthur A. (T&P) Aug., p. 224.
Emphasis on reporting, not circulation, could settle income statement controversy. Mautz, R. K. Aug., p. 212.
Explaining the annual report: Caterpillar tractor puts questions and answers in its employee magazine. Whitlock, A. N. (T&P) July, p. 84
How important is the statement of funds? Gole, V. L. (T&P) Sept., p. 343.
How to improve commercial credit standing. (Editorial) Dec., p. 679.
Long-form reports analyzed in new Institute publication. (CA&AP) Oct., p. 479.
New developments in auditing by independent certified public accountants. Jennings, Alvin R. July, p. 37.
Problems encountered by accountant when expressing an opinion on cash-basis statements. Hill, Gordon M. Sept., p. 309.
Reporting omission of extended procedures. (CA&AP) Nov., p. 619.
Some examples of useful variations in the modern short-form audit report. Myers, John H. Nov., p. 588.
Some problems regarding consolidated and parent company statements. American institute of accountants. Nov., p. 570.

Reuter, Roy V.
Suggested answer to CPA exam question accused of "technical gobbledygook." (Corr.) July, p. 23.

Revenue
Premature revenue recognition. Paton, William A. Oct., p. 432.

Rice, Charles E.
New form of balance-sheet is easier for client and bankers to understand. (Corr.) Nov., p. 541.

Rule of Nine
How to find transposition errors by expanding the arithmetical rule of nine. Neely, Fred T. Oct., p. 470.

Ruml, Beardsley
Good business accounting for government. (Corr.) Dec., p. 668.
Mr. Ruml's new plan. (Editorial) Oct., p. 423.

Sales and selling
Effective sales management needs strong accounting support. (T&P) Dec., p. 726.

Sanders, Dan H.
Installment method of accounting as applied to retail credit jewelry stores. (T&P) July, p. 89.

Schneider, Paul D.
To afford higher salaries, raise accounting fees. (Corr.) July, p. 28.

Simon, Sidney I.
How far do the courts go in upholding accounting principles for determining income? Dec., p. 683.

Slotnick, E. H.
Why not put workmen's compensation insurance reports on a quarterly basis? (Corr.) Oct., p. 415.

Small business
Financing small business. (Editorial) July, p. 34.
Further notes from Mr. Folsom on how the tax program will affect small business . . . from testimony before House committee on small business, May 21, 1953. (OD&R) July, p. 106.

Smith, Frederic H.
Horrible example of auditor's opinion discovered by GAO official. (Corr.) Aug., p. 153.

Social security
Twelve important points for accountants to know about social security. (T&P) Nov., p. 606.

Society of incorporated accountants and auditors
Valuation of goodwill in a professional practice. (OD&R) Sept., p. 361.
Value of professional unity. (Editorial) Aug., p. 165.

Specialization
Specialization in the professions. (Editorial) Oct., p. 425.

Statements
See Reports and statements

Statistics
Statistical techniques need deeper study before they can be useful in auditing. Johnson, Robert W. Sept., p. 336.

Stepnick, Edward W.
Profession should be honored, not alarmed, by extension of term "audit." (Corr.) July, p. 23.

Stock, Maxwell
Simplification of tax reporting sends carbon of federal return to state. (Corr.) Dec., p. 676.

Stock
Some questions and answers on treasury stock and stock dividends. (CA&AP) Oct., p. 478.
Treatment of promotional shares held in escrow. (CA&AP) Aug., p. 221.

Stock dividends
See Dividends

Stock exchanges
Incorporation of stock exchange firms. (Editorial) Nov., p. 552.

Students department; edited by Robert L. Kane, Jr.
Dates for the CPA examination. Aug., p. 243.
Exit the CPA figure artist: enter the CPA business administrator, by Richard S. Claire. Oct., p. 515.
References for Accounting practice, II. July, p. 118.
References for auditing examination. Aug., p. 243.
References for theory. Sept., p. 386.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in accounting practice—Part I, May 1953. July, p. 118.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in accounting practice—Part II, May 1953. Aug., p. 244.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in auditing, May 1953. Sept., p. 378.
Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in commercial law, May 1953, answers prepared by Fontaine C. Bradley. Nov., p. 608.

Uniform certified public accountant examination—Examination in theory of accounts, May 1953. Oct., p. 506.

Tax clinic; a department edited by J. K. Lasser
Adjustment for interest in EP taxes. Sept., p. 352.
Alphabetizing the tax dollars. Oct., p. 483.
Better clear tough replacements after fire with the service. Dec., p. 738.
Books and other items recommended for the tax practitioner's library. July, p. 80.
Cash distributions under sec. 112(b) (6). Dec., p. 734.
Comes the Garden of Eden. Sept., p. 351.
Correction on book prices. Sept., p. 352.
Discount on tax freedom by swap of common stock for interest obligation. Aug., p. 217.
Don't be a joint tenant. Nov., p. 627.
Estate planning in closely-held corporations. Sept., p. 351.
Estate-planning techniques and ownership of Canadian securities. Aug., p. 217.
Getting proportions in section 112(b)(5) Transfer. Nov., p. 630.
Hedging investments are much sought. Dec., p. 736.
How to report capital gains by trusts. Sept., p. 350.
"I enclose a copy of your will." Aug., p. 218.
Is refusal to accept gift taxable? Sept., p. 350.
Medical practitioners' deductions for dues to professional organizations. Dec., p. 733.
More objections to "claim of right" rule. July, p. 79.
Negative bases. July, p. 79.
Paying another's expenses. Nov., p. 627.
Reporting on the 510 day "workcation." Aug., p. 218.
Slugging at the United mine workers welfare and retirement fund. Dec., p. 736.
Spin-offs. Oct., p. 481.
Taxation of foreign operations. Nov., p. 628.
Using treasury stock is spewing buckshot from blunderbuss. Dec., p. 733.
What final factors govern taxation of an incorporated estate? Oct., p. 843.
Writing the $5,000 tax-exempt payment for employees' beneficiaries. Dec., p. 738

Taxation
Advantages of payroll procedure which deducts income tax and FICA withholding simultaneously by using a prepared table. Novak, Robert E. (T&P) Oct., p. 491.
Analysis of 17 new amendments to IRC made by Technical changes act of 1953. Harrow, Benjamin. Oct., p. 438.
Appeals court upholds conviction of accountant for failing to produce tax records. (OD&R) July, p. 110.
Complication in taxing partnerships caused by coexistence of entity and aggregate concepts. Warner, Ross T. Dec., p. 703.
Current evaluation of estate and trust taxation of interest to the CPA. Mortensen, Clair M. Aug., p. 206.
Fifth circuit holds accountants must produce client's tax records, though state law grants privilege. (OD&R) Sept., p. 591.
Further notes from Mr. Folsom on how the tax program will affect small business...from testimony before House committee on small business May 21, 1953. (OD&R) July, p. 106.
Institute's tax testimony. (Editorial) Sept., p. 294.
Proper use of section 107 lessens tax burden on lump-sum income. Bayly, Charles B., Jr. Nov., p. 582.
Sales taxes and income taxes. (Editorial) Dec., p. 681.
Shall price level changes be removed from computations of capital gain or loss? Cloe, Carl W. Oct., p. 484.
Tax consequences of inadequate equity capital: the thin corporation problem. Kramer, Jay O. Oct., p. 449.
Taxability of prepayments in the United States, Canada, and Britain. Pierce, Melville. July, p. 72.
Treasury official describes tax research program (OD&R) July, p. 102.
Treatment of "capital-gain dividends" by fiduciary shareholders. (CA&AP) Aug., p. 220.

Taylor, Harry E.
If insurance policies bother you, why not do something about them? (Corr.) July, p. 23.
Two quarters may feel lighter than one half-dollar, but they weigh the same. (Corr.) Dec., p. 667.

Technical and professional notes; a department
Accountant's contribution to profitability of railroad operating income. Bretey, Pierre R. Sept., p. 344.
Advantages of payroll procedure which deducts income tax and FICA withholdings simultaneously by using a prepared table. Novak, Robert E. Oct., p. 491.
Audit short stories: two cases where perseverance paid off. Keller, William M. Oct., p. 489.
Automobile leasing: the arithmetic of renting rather than buying company cars. Tippie, Henry B. Dec., p. 727.
Can there be specific rules for capitalization of borderline expenditures? Cole, LeRoy H. July, p. 92.
Drafting audit report before final examination saves time for client, accountant, and clerical staff. Harvey, Arthur A. Aug., p. 224.
Effective sales management needs strong accounting support. Ames, Glen R. Dec., p. 726.
English accountants show concern for fees—a universal problem. Aug., p. 225.
Explaining the annual report: Caterpillar tractor puts questions and answers in its employee magazine. Whitlock, A. N. July, p. 84.
From England: seven provocative ideas on how to make cost accounting simpler and more useful. Lancaster, Norman G. Dec., p. 723.
General Electric's system for protecting against fraud and error in disbursement. Nov., p. 605.
How important is the statement of funds? Gole, V. L. Sept., p. 343.
How realistic are modern accounting procedures in the valuation of business capital? Moonitz, Maurice. July, p. 86.
Installment method of accounting as applied to retail credit jewelry stores. Sanders, Dan H. July, p. 89.
Is depreciation for hospitals good accounting practice? Morey, Lloyd. Dec., p. 725.
Shall price level changes be removed from computations of capital gain or loss? Cloe, Carl W. Oct., p. 484.
Simple way to compute current portion of long-term liability. Reich, Marion R. Dec., p. 727.
Ten questions the accountant should ask himself when giving an opinion on supplementary income information. Raun, Donald L. Aug., p. 223.
Twelve important points for accountants to know about social security. Nov., p. 606.
Unusual presentation of net worth on a proprietorship balance-sheet. Brooks, E. Stanley. Sept., p. 342.
Why the CPA should always use the standard form when requesting information from a bank. Heilmann, Charles P. Sept., p. 341.

Technical changes act of 1953
Analysis of 17 new amendments to IRC made by Technical changes act of 1953. Harrow, Benjamin. Oct., p. 438.

Tippie, Henry B.
Automobile leasing: the arithmetic of renting rather than buying company cars. (T&P) Dec., p. 727.

Treasury official describes tax research program. (OD&R) July, p. 102.

Valuation
Auditor's responsibility when asset values are written up (CA&AP) Sept., p. 348.
How realistic are modern accounting procedures in the valuation of business capital? Moonitz, Maurice. (T&P) July, p. 86.

van Pelt, John V., III
Reasons why the accounting profession should encourage a broader utilization of lifo, Oct., p. 452.

Wages, fees, salaries, etc.
English accountants show concern for fees—a universal problem. (T&P) Aug., p. 225.

Warner, Ross T.
Complication in taxing partnerships caused by coexistence of entity and aggregate concepts. Dec., p. 703.

Weinwurm, Ernest H.
Instead of debating over lifo, let's eliminate its shortcomings. Sept., p. 288.

Wendt, A. O.
Mr. Wendt, author of "earned surplus" terminology article, replies to critics. (Corr.) Sept., p. 285.

Wendt article on replacement for term "earned surplus" brings three answers, by W. R. Hassard, H. C. Miranda and M. Guion Lee. (Corr.) Sept., p. 285.

Werntz, William W.
Resurgence of the balance-sheet as a useful element in financial analysis. Nov., p. 555.

Whitlock, A. N.
Explaining the annual report: Caterpillar tractor puts questions and answers in its employee magazine. (T&P) July, p. 84.

Wilcox, Edward B.
Accounting for stock dividends: a dissent from current recommended practice. Aug., p. 176.

Wilson, Robert E.
One state allows relevant price index as basis for translating original cost. (Corr.) Dec., p. 668.

Wright, Howard W.
Explanation of new records clause for cost-type defense contracts. July, p. 56.

Write-ups
Auditor's responsibility when asset values are written up. (CA&AP) Sept., p. 348.

Yellin, Morris
Use of "accumulated profits" instead of "earned surplus" keeps clients happy. (Corr.) Nov., p. 546.